Gratitude

- Upcoming Christmas Concert (Dec. 6)
- Last Summer's Concert Series: July 9, 16, 23, & 30
- Freedom Center as a Rehearsal Location.

Who We Are

- Founded in 1986 by Kirk Raymond.
- A “Concert Band” of 65 players on woodwinds and brass.
- Audience Favorites:
 - “What a Wonderful World,”
 - “Go West!”
 - “Beach Boys Greatest Hits,”
 - “Highlights from Wicked.”

How to Join

- Any adult who can read music and play a wind instrument or percussion is eligible.
- 800 instrumentalists have participated since 1986.
- Volunteer conductors:
Bob Hackett,
Tommy Militello,
Zach Borquez,
John McQuilkin.

Audience

- More than 400 attend each concert.
- An experience of live music at no cost.
- Programs appeal to all ages and tastes.
- Building a sense of community.

Next Steps

- Planning for the next forty years.
- Controlling costs, attracting players, and pleasing audiences.
- Letting musicians play and providing concerts for the community.
